Digital Millennium Copyright Act Notification

Pursuant to the Digital Millennium Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. §512(c)(3)(A), I hereby notify you of the following:

1) A physical or electronic signature of a person authorized to act on behalf of the owner of an exclusive right that is allegedly infringed.

SEE BOTTOM #5 & #6

2) Identification of the copyrighted work claimed to have been infringed, or, if multiple copyrighted works at a single online site are covered by a single notification, a representative list of such works at that site.

The copyrighted works being infringed are articles or narratives authored or co-authored by me. They are not available on the web.

3) Identification of the material that is claimed to be infringing or to be the subject of infringing activity and that is to be removed or access to which is to be disabled, and information reasonably sufficient to permit the service provider to locate the material.

4) Information reasonably sufficient to permit the service provider to contact the complaining party, such as an address, telephone number, and, if available, an electronic mail address at which the complaining party may be contacted.

5) A statement that the complaining party has a good faith belief that use of the material in the manner complained of is not authorized by the copyright owner, its agent, or the law.

I have a good faith belief that the use of the material complained of is not authorized by the copyright owner, its agent, or the law.

6) A statement that the information in the notification is accurate, and under penalty of perjury, that the complaining party is authorized to act on behalf of the owner of an exclusive right that is allegedly infringed.

I hereby swear and affirm above under the penalty of perjury that the above information is accurate and that I am authorized to act on behalf of the copyright owner of an exclusive right that has been infringed.
