I believe this is an appropriate circumstance to disable and terminate the account of users who are infringing on my copyright and intellectual property rights. I know that my work has been copied in a way that constitutes copyright infringement and my intellectual property rights have been otherwise violated. I have included the following information as required in items 1 - 6.

Here is a description of the copyrighted work and other intellectual property that has been infringed along with a description of where the material that is infringing is located on the site.

PS There may be more of my photographs in other locations on this site that I don't know about. Can you inform me how I can completely search out all of my photographic images on this and other sites? Also please remove all of these photographs from your image search postings. Could you tell me if you are removing the whole site or just my photographs? I have tried contacting the webmaster who has done nothing. Do I need to contact the online service provider legal department, NTT/Verio? Do I need to contact other search engines like Goggle or if you remove the site will it be removed from other search engines also?
