Re: 17 U.S.C. §512 Takedown Letter: www.mana03.com/clients/livemercial/index.asp

Dear Sirs:

We are counsel to Livemercial.com in the enforcement of its copyrights and intellectual property rights. It has come to our attention that the web site at <www.mana03.com> (aka White Drake Communications) is hosting a copy of our client's web site. Our client owns the copyright in the web design, text and images of the web site at www.mana03.com/clients/livemercial/index.asp and all pages to which it links.

This act is causing www.mana03.com/clients/livemercial/index.asp to appear on the first page of results for a search query on the word "LIVEMERCIAL."

We have been in contact with the gentleman who runs this web site and informed him of the problem. His contact information is as follows:

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] Drive
Valparaiso, Indiana 46383
[REDACTED]@[REDACTED].com

As evidenced by our search, Mr. Johnson, a former employee of our client, has not fully complied with our demands. Regardless of any role Mr. Johnson may have played in the creation of the web site, under the "work made for hire" doctrine of the Copyright Act, the copyright in the web site design belongs to our client.

I have a good faith belief that use of the copyrighted materials described above on the allegedly infringing web pages is not authorized by the copyright owner, its agent, or the law.

LLP

I swear, under penalty of perjury consistent with United States Code Title 17, Section 512, that the information in the notification is accurate and that I am authorized to act on behalf of the owner of an exclusive right that is allegedly infringed.

Sincerely yours,
