Dear Google Groups Support Team,
RE: User Support, DMCA Complaints

We have recently confirmed that certain Alias Systems software products have been advertised for purchase or distribution on certain Google Groups.

The attached message was posted December 10, 2003 on the following newsgroups:
comp.graphics.animation, regarding the selling or distribution of Maya 5 Unlimited.

The message id is as follows:

Message-ID: <6abc6579.0312101900.1c39a3cc@posting.google.com>

Pursuant to §512(c) of the Copyright Act (as amended by the Digital Millenium Copyright Act), under certain circumstances you, as a service provider, may be excluded from the legal liability that arises as a consequence of these infringing activities. Service providers may be entitled to rely upon certain limitations of liability for online infringements provided that, upon notification of the claimed infringement, a provider "... responds expeditiously to remove, or disable access to, the material that is claimed to be infringing or to be the subject of an infringing activity."

This letter shall constitute notice pursuant to §512 that your system or network is presently providing access to the Materials, which are the subject of an infringing activity.

Alias Systems software products are distributed to end-users solely pursuant to a non-transferable license from Alias Systems. Alias Systems, using its own sales force, and Alias Systems authorized distributors and resellers are the only entities with authority to complete such license transactions or distribute these products. Alias Systems is a division of Silicon Graphics Limited.

The material(s) ("Materials") that are the subject of this infringing activity is/are:

Maya 5 Unlimited

I have a good faith belief that the sale and/or distribution of the Materials in this manner is not authorized by Alias Systems, its agents or the law. The information contained in this notification is accurate and I hereby swear, under penalty of perjury, consistent with the United States Code Title 17, Section 512, that the information in the notification is accurate and that I am authorized to act on behalf of Alias Systems, the copyright owner of the Materials.

Please find attached a copy of the Google Groups posting. Please remove or disable access to the Materials immediately and provide notification of such removal or disabling immediately.

We thank you for your cooperation in this matter.

Sincerely,

Senior Legal Counsel
Alias Systems, a division of Silicon Graphics Limited
