HISTORY: [REDACTED] owner of the SecurityFocus "BugTraq" newsgroup, removed the original copy of this post from the "BugTraq" mailing list and acknowledged that I have complete control of the content of this post back on March 25, 2002. The linked page noted above is an unauthorized archive of [REDACTED] newsgroup and an unauthorized reprint of work which [REDACTED] acknowledges belongs to me. In accordance with [REDACTED] wishes and my wishes, almost all other BugTraq archives have removed their copies of my post. It is likely this site retains their copy because the company hosting the content has gone out of business (repeated attempts to contact the company via email and phone have all failed).
