Re: Notice of Copyright Infringement Under the Digital Millennium Copyright Act (DMCA)

Dear Sir or Madam:

We recently learned of content available through the Google groups function which infringes our copyright. Pursuant to the DMCA, the copyright owner respectfully requests that you remove the unauthorized, infringing materials from your web site immediately.

The copyrighted work infringed is course materials copyrighted in 1987 by [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] All rights reserved.

The work is being infringed by [REDACTED] "The Source Course." [REDACTED] and his agents have been enjoined from selling, publishing, or distributing "The Source Course" by the Federal District Court, Middle District of Florida. Attached is a copy of the judgment enjoining its sale, publication, or distribution. He or his agent is using the Google group function as an agent to advertise the sale, publication, or distribution of the infringing materials.

I have a good faith belief, and in fact know for certain, that the use of the copyrighted materials is not authorized by the copyright owner, its agent, or the law. In fact, it is counter to federal court order. Pursuant to the DMCA, the copyright owner respectfully requests that you immediately remove access to the infringing materials from your website.

I swear, under penalty of perjury, that the above information in this notice is accurate and that I am authorized to act on the copyright owner's behalf.

Please notify me when the post has been removed.

If you require further information, let me know and I will provide it without delay. Thank you for your assistance in this matter.
