Dear Sir or Madam,

The following DMCA complaint regards material copied from the web site hosted at www.shopforphones.co.uk by the website hosted at www.gtv.be. Note that the search strings quoted in section 2 are more apparent on the google.be engine with pagina's uit België selected, however I am requesting the removal of all infringing entries in all databases.

Please note that this is the second complaint that I have made against this site, the owners of which do not respond to requests to take down the infringing material. Subitems 1 to 22 are part of a DMCA complaint already made to Google (reference #15471667) made on 9th October 2004 which has still not been acted upon.

The work copied is my intellectual property and is protected under the laws of the United States, United Kingdom, Belgium and other countries. Many of these pages rank highly in the local Google search engine, and Google is unintentionally allowing this copyright violator to profit from unlawfully copied material. As such, I request that this request be expedited as soon as possible.

The copyrighted work at issue is the text that appears on several pages:
