RE: Notification of Violation of the Digital Millennium
Copyright Act ("DMCA"), 17 U.S.C. §512 (1998)

Dear [Private] ,

This letter serves as your notice of an ongoing violation of the DMCA. I am authorized to act on behalf of the Embroidery Software Protection Coalition ("ESPC"), the copyright owners of the material which is being infringed. The materials which are being infringed are copyrighted electronic embroidery designs. These designs are being sold and traded which can be found at the following location:
<http://romeo980.blogspot.com/>

This letter shall serve as the demand of the ESPC to disable the infringing activity immediately.

You may contact me at the following address: [Private], Manager of Software Protection, ESPC,[private] Dallas, TX. You may contact me by email at [\[private\]@greatnotions.com](mailto:[private]@greatnotions.com)

I have a good faith belief that the trading of the electronic embroidery designs is not authorized by the individual copyright owners, their agents, or the law.

The information contained in this notification is accurate and, under penalty of perjury, I state that I am authorized to act on behalf of the owners of exclusive rights which are being infringed by the members of or participants in the aforementioned website.

Your immediate compliance with the disabling of the infringing activity is appreciated. Please let me know if you need any additional information with regard to this subject.

Sincerely yours,

[Private]

Manager of Software Protection
