All gentlemen using our professional service, pre-select ladies for initial introductions in the chaperoned environment of our comfortable Bangkok location. Our Bi-lingual Thai manageress sits in attendance at ALL meetings. If BOTH parties like each other, they arrange a date, there and then. If EITHER party is disinterested, the interview terminates, and the gentleman meets the next lady he has booked for interview an hour later.

Invariably at the first session of interviews, a gentleman finds at least one lady who interests him, and who is happy to go out on a date with him.

We then if required book further interviews for him. Gentlemen invariably find their ideal potential partner within a few days, often spending time together out of Bangkok; usually returning later, announcing that they wish to get engaged. This does NOT however, necessarily mean that they are going to hastily marry. The gentleman will return home alone initially, write to his fiancée, and often make a second visit, to be sure all is well, before the lady's visa application is made at the relevant Embassy.

Thai Etiquette – Thai customs, Thai culture, Thai Girls.

A Few 'Do's And Don'ts'

Before searching for your potential Thai bride, it is important to learn more about Thai etiquette. Thais are a polite, friendly race, and take immense care in their behaviour towards other people. It is only right therefore, that visitors to Thailand show the same degree of respect for Thai customs, culture, and conventions.

Putting Your Foot In It.

Never touch a Thai; even a child, on the head. Thai's consider the head the most important part of the body, deserving the most honour, whilst the foot, is the least honoured. This belief originates from the ancient Hindu belief (subsequently imported to Thailand) that the head is the most sacred part of the body, and the feet the most unclean. When in a Buddhist temple, one should tuck ones legs beneath ones body, avoiding stretching them out to face the Buddha.

The wearing of shoes inside temples and homes is also forbidden.

Greetings.

The traditional Thai greeting is the “wai” in which both hands are raised slowly and gracefully, palm down and close to the body, the closer the hands are held to the head, the greater the respect signalled. If greeted with a “wai”, it is polite to return the greeting but not to initiate it. Do not “wai” servants, hotel staff, taxi drivers, other servile members of the public, or children.

Dress.

Always dress smartly when accompanying a lady in Thailand. Do not wear shorts or scanty clothing, especially in rural areas – This is insulting to the girl (Thai people will assume the girl is a prostitute). Contrary to popular belief, the Western decadence embraced by the Thai sex industry, is totally unrepresentative of the general Thai attitude towards the body. Indeed, Thai morality verges on near Victorian values.

Behaviour.

Embracing, holding hands or showing any signs of affection in public, is generally unacceptable, and should only occur when a couple know each other reasonably well.

Thai nationals do not display extremes of emotions in public. To do so is perceived as losing face, and is a sign of weakness. Thai girls like men who exhibit a gentle calm and placid demeanour, displaying conduct worthy of a gentleman at all times - but they also like men with a good sense of humour! Never make any intimate contact with a Thai lady, until you have made a commitment to her.

Royalty.

The Royal family holds an exalted position in the hearts and minds of all Thai people; indeed they are almost regarded as having divine status. Most Thai households have pictures of King Bhumibol and Queen Sirikit in their homes.

When addressing or referring to the Royal family, the Thais use a special language full of deferentials. Disrespect to the Royal family will cause great offence in Thailand. Treading on a coin or note bearing the Kings head, may land one in trouble, as it is deemed to be tantamount to kicking in the face!

Religion.

Suggestions that Buddhism-The most prevalent religion in Thailand and much of the Far east is not compatible with Western ways or religious beliefs, is quite erroneous. Buddhism plays an essential part in the everyday lives of most Thais. Buddhist monuments should be treated with respect – this entails wearing long trousers or skirts covering ones arms, and removing ones shoes, when one visits such sites. All Buddhist images are sacred, and should be treated with respect at all times. Buddhism is not so much a religion, as a way of life. It is compatible

Question 2: "What is so special about the service provided by Thai Wives for All Introductions and why should I choose your agency? At Thai Wives for All, we introduce gentlemen to the kind of decent, marriage minded Thai ladies, who they could only ever realistically be able to meet, if they were a long standing respected friend of the girls family. - An impossible unrealistic scenario.

Our service is FULLY comprehensive. We are there for you at EVERY stage of the process; from initial introduction, through to engagement and/or marriage, visa preparation, visa interview and after care service, whilst the Thai lady settles in her new home country.

With Thai Wives for All you DEAL DIRECT. We have NO middlemen. The buck stops with us. We have 100% control over ALL operations.

We provide a complete comprehensive service; from first contact, to ultimate marriage and beyond. We can arrange flights, hotels wedding ceremonies etc. at favourable rates.

WE WILL NOT LET YOU DOWN

Question 3: "What are a gentleman's marriage requirements, to qualify for a Thai Wife?"

1. He must be single, divorced or widowed.
2. He must be in employment, self-employed, or of independent means.
3. He must be a homeowner, or have a renewable tenancy agreement.
4. He must have had a bank or building society account for at least 6 months.
5. He must have a valid passport, which does not expire for at least 6 months after his departure date from Thailand.
6. He must be prepared to travel to Bangkok. Basically gentlemen have to be able to demonstrate to their embassy/consulate, that upon arrival in their chosen country of residence, their Thai wives/fiancées will not be a burden upon the state, by having to resort to public funds.

It is possible by mutual consent, for a gentleman awaiting his divorce, to become "engaged" to the Thai lady of their choice. The lady invariably will agree to wait, until the gentleman's divorce certificate is forthcoming.

Question 4 : "What kind of men use your service?"

Genuine men aged 20-70 from ALL walks of life and ALL physical and social statuses.

Page 8*Question 5: "Can the girls speak English?"

Most have a very little English knowledge. A few can speak English reasonably well. However, even if your chosen lady knows very little English, she will have the will and the desire to improve her English very quickly. When I met my Thai wife she could not speak a word of English! But it did not stop me communicating with her, and falling madly in love with her!

Question 6: "If my chosen potential Thai wife cannot speak much English can you help?"

Of course we can!
We can assist her in obtaining English tuition, in one of the many language schools situated in Bangkok. Tuition fees are very reasonable in price and will be surprised how quickly she will learn.

Question 7: "How much does your service cost?"

Full details are to be found on our "costs" page.

Question 8: "How long should I plan to stay in Thailand?"

Clients usually stay in Thailand for about 1-3 weeks. Some only visit for a few days, (if they are in Bangkok on business anyway), returning later to consolidate their plans. However those who visit for 2 weeks, invariably have plenty of time to forge a meaningful long-term commitment. Quite high percentages actually marry in Bangkok. Whilst others take the slower more cautious route of engagement in Thailand, sending their chosen lady to their home country, on a fiance visa.

Question 9: "How much will my accommodation cost?"

Hotel accommodation close to our location costs from as little as US$16 per night. A 3 star hotel close to our location, about USD$40. A 5 star hotel approximately USD80 per night.

Please note we are not a travel firm, but we generally assist clients with their travel and accommodation arrangements.

Question 10: "What is your visa success rate?"

100%! No Bull shit

Page 9*Question 11: "What happens if I am unsuccessful?"

It really does not happen! If a gentleman is unable to make his mind up due to too much choice, or lack of time; he is eligible to return to Bangkok at a future date convenient to himself, within a 12 month period. He will then be provided with further selections of ladies, if required; until he has found his ideal partner; with only a small additional fee.

PLEASE NOTE. THE ANSWERS TO QUESTIONS 12 AND 13 ARE NOT OUR PERSONAL OPINION, BUT THOSE EXPRESSED BY THE MANY OF LADIES WHO HAVE ENROLLED ON OUR BOOKS. WE ARE NOT IMPLYING THAT ALL THAI MEN ARE BAD!!!

Question 12: "Why do these beautiful Thai ladies want to leave Thailand, to travel thousands of miles to a different culture and climate?"

They are just looking for what they cannot easily find in their own country - a good, sincere, kind hearted gentleman, who they can love and care for, who will do the same for them. There are many more women than men in Thailand, and a great shortage of eligible men. Thailand is a very male orientated society. There is a strong bias towards men in the workplace, and elsewhere. Ladies are considered "over the hill" at 28 years old! Many Thai men tend to be very promiscuous; often having more than one wife, and several occasional girlfriends. They are generally not looking for a long-term stable relationship. Not good husband material!

PLEASE NOTE. We are NOT saying that ALL Thai men are bad!! There are good and bad in EVERY race.

Thai women are not fully equal to their male counterparts. They are governed by a variety of legal, religious, and cultural restrictions.

Question 13: "Why do these ladies want to marry a Western man"

Divorce in Thailand is quick, easy and cheap. Newly divorced Thai women have little opportunity or desire to remarry Thai men. The old analogy of a Thai marriage where the lady is likened to the back legs of an elephant, and as such is the stabilising directing influence, is a good analogy. Indeed women are often as important as men, in the economic contribution to the household, but their role is staying in the background behind their men, supporting them.

Many Thai ladies are rebelling against this intolerable treatment by their unfaithful husbands. Many now in fact initiate divorce proceedings, accepting the hardship, and repercussions of their actions. Other young unmarried Thai ladies see this scenario all too often, and have no desire to follow this unsavoury route of marriage, followed by divorce. They are now looking to outside men to provide the stable monogamous relationship which they seek.

They consider that Western men possess important qualities, which are sadly lacking in many Thai men. That they are loving, caring, faithful, and will provide the long term security which they crave.

Question 14: "Do these ladies want to leave Thailand to escape Poverty and hardship?"

No, this is not their prime directive. Thailand has a robust economy, with a shortage of labour in certain fields of employment. In point of fact, the ladies on our books are more than happy to consider a good man who wants to live in Thailand with them.

We do not deal in economic migrants!

Question 15: "Where do the ladies come from?"

Our ladies come from most walks of life, and from all over Thailand.

They all live and work in Bangkok, as that is where all the work is to be found. They occasionally return to the country for public holidays.

Question 16: "What kind of ladies are on your books?"

Decent single gainfully employed marriage minded ladies, from all walks of life.

Question 17: "What is an acceptable age difference?"

This is up to each individual lady. However Thai ladies generally prefer a man who is a good few years older than her.

Most ladies like to meet a man face to face, (rather than stating categorically an age range), before making any hard and fast decisions.

Page 11

Question 18: "What happens when I arrive in Bangkok?"

You can be met at Bangkok International airport, by our office manager, and escorted back by complimentary taxi, to your chosen accommodation in Bangkok.

Question 19: "What happens next?"

If you wish, you can rest at your hotel to recover from your long flight. Alternatively, you can hit the ground running, and commence introductions the same day. Generally however, clients get themselves a good night's rest, and begin their selection procedure the following morning, by which time they are fully rested and raring to go! Indeed, many clients often make provisional selections, prior to their arrival in Bangkok, and have a couple of dates pre-booked.

Question 20: "How many ladies can I meet?"

As many as you like! We will keep introducing you to ladies, until you say stop!

Question 21: "Do you provide any introductions to Thai ladies living in other countries?"

No.

Question 22: "Why not?"

Because any organisation dealing in this market, is invariably in fact usually dealing with less than genuine ladies, (often under dubious circumstances), and have a visa which is rapidly running out. These ladies realise, that the only way to secure a settlement visa, is to meet and swiftly marry a British gentleman, before they are sent back to Thailand! These are marriages of convenience. The ladies bide their time, wait until they have achieved their goal, then disappear.

This has NEVER occurred with any of the ladies on our books.

Question 23: "Do you have any links to any other organisations working in this field?"

Absolutely not. With us you deal direct. We have NO middlemen.

Question 24: "What about other costs? Flights, accommodation etc"

Page 12

All information can sent to you upon request.

Question 25: "Can you help with these arrangements?"

As stated above, Yes we can! We are not travel agents, but we can point you in the right direction for flights. See "costs" page. We can also help you make big savings on hotel accommodation, pleasure trips, etc.

Question 26: "Can I visit your Bangkok location to "take a look" before deciding whether I wish to use your service or not?"

We do NOT accept casual callers at our Bangkok premise.

There are certainly no sinister or underhand reasons for this approach. The simple fact is, that every lady, and every man visiting our office, has a committed intent to finding a life partner. We are ALWAYS very busy with clients using our full service, and the arrival of occasional casual visitors, would, we KNOW be the "thin edge of the wedge" of what, by future word of mouth would inevitably lead to a virtual "peep show" for casual visitors. This would cause severe embarrassment to the ladies on our books, and our staff alike.

Please note. We are NOT a casual dating agency, and as such do not offer an occasional dating service. We cater exclusively for marriage minded gentlemen. This is done out of respect to the decent ladies on our books, who are only wishing to meet sincere gentlemen with honourable intentions. As I am sure you are.

Question 27: "Can I write to ladies before I visit Bangkok?"

In theory, this is a great idea. However in practice it is not so. The reasons are quite simple.

Ladies take time off work to meet gentlemen using our service in our Bangkok. In theory they would have to do the same to receive and send replies to interested men who are not in Bangkok.

It really is however, a case of "A bird in the hand is worth two in the bush"

As we have many gentleman clients using our service, the ladies naturally wish to use their time off as productively as possible. They are not so keen therefore, to use this time to receive letters from gentleman who, in their minds, may never come to Bangkok at all, or at best, probably arrive after they have become engaged to another man!

Page 13

Experience tells us that the ladies are looking to meet a potential partner
"face to face" NOW, not at a later date.

These ladies are NOT looking for penpals.

and social status of the lady.

(b)" Attempting to find a lady that will stay faithful to you in your absence?".

Answer: Once "engaged" to a lady who is on the books of a reputable
