To Whom It May Concern:

I discovered yesterday that someone stole the content off my site (word for word). Incidentally, he uses Adsense on each page.

1. The copyrighted work at issue is both text and some graphics in the tutorial pages listed.

The search term I used was a sentence off my site, because my site is still in the Google Sandbox, so it's doesn't yet come up for any standard keyword combos.

2. Search term used (with quotes): "HTML looks much scarier than it is" and I get the first page below:
