To: Google User Support, DMCA Complaints, Fax# [REDACTED]

Dear Google DMCA Department,

Our company sells a single product, Hollywood Camera Work, which is a DVD set of video-training. Recently, under the search term "hollywood camera work", we came across several links to illegal download and sharing of pirated copies and RIPs of our product.

Our product has appeared on several of the search-listing pages, providing anyone with minimal computer-skills access to an illegal download of our product, using the primary search-term one would use to search for us (our product/company name).

We are simultaneously an AdWords advertiser, so a user simply has to decide to click our AdWords link to acquire the product legally, or click the infringer's link to download it illegally.

Search query: "hollywood camera work"
